Took the Spring Medicine Just in Time

What a wonderful change is wrought in the people who take Hood's Sarsaparilla as their spring medicine!

It makes the weak strong. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood. It creates a good appetite. It restores the nerves to their natural functions.

MRS. C. K. TYLER.

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that has made it the Standard Spring Medicine of the World.

NOTED MEN GATHER AT BIER OF ALDRICH. Funeral Services for the Poet Are Held in Boston.

Boston, March 23.—Unostentatious as the poet himself had wished, but impressively memorable of the life and work of the author, were the funeral services held for Thomas Bailey Aldrich, the leader of New England's literary group, who died Tuesday afternoon at his home in this city. The tribute given to the poet was pre-eminently the honor paid by the literary life of New England, and the entire service breathed the atmosphere in which Mr. Aldrich lived and of which his career was a part.

In the Arlington Street church (Unitarian), a large number of persons assembled before the noon hour to show final respect to the writer's memory. The large auditorium was completely filled. The honorary pall bearers were Prof. Charles Eliot Norton of Harvard University, Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, Edmund Clarence Stedman of New York, Henry M. Alden of New York, Richard Watson Gilder, Hamilton W. Mabie, Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., and United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge; Bliss Perry, and Edward L. Boring; George F. Woodberry and Moorefield Storey, David P. Kimball and George H. Milford, and Judge Robert Grant and T. Russell Sullivan.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Rev. Frothingham, the pastor of the Arlington Street church, assisted by the Rev. James de Normandie, pastor of the First church (Unitarian) of Roxbury, who many years ago was leader of the Unitarian church at Portsmouth, N. H., where as a boy Mr. Aldrich worshipped.

DIDN'T HAVE BRAIN STORM. Englishman Meant to Kill Polish Count And Is Glad He Did.

Tonopah, Nev., March 23.—Count Constantine Podorsky, a Polish nobleman, son of the Princess Radzivil of Russia and Count Podorsky of Poland and well known in New York and Chicago society and Bohemian theatrical circles, was shot and instantly killed Thursday night at the Ajav, the Bohemian restaurant of Goldfield, by J. C. Hines, an English army officer, through a remarkable case of jealousy.

Mrs. Hines attempted to draw the count away, but he was shot through the head before he saw his assailant. Some persons in Goldfield say his murder is a great, unjustified crime, caused through Hines' imagining similarity in his own and the Thaw case.

Podorsky was 44 years old, and was formerly governor of a Russian province and an officer of the Russian imperial guard, belonging to the same regiment as the husband of Julia Grant, and was a noted swordsman and shot.

"This man ruined my life," said Hines when arrested. "I have killed him. It was none of your brain storm. I meant to kill him and I am glad it is done."

OXFORD WINS FIELD MEET. Three American Rhodes Scholars Take Firsts in the Contests.

London, March 23.—The annual Oxford-Cambridge field sports took place at the Queen's club here yesterday afternoon in springlike weather and with a big crowd present. No fewer than seven Rhodes scholars were among the Oxonian competitors, including P. M. Young of South Dakota in the long and high jumps, in both of which he was victorious last year; Albert M. Stevens of Yale in the hammer throw, for which he also competed in 1906; W. E. Schmitt of Cornell in the half-mile run, which he just failed to capture in 1905, and W. W. Thayer of Harvard, who was in the second string of Oxford's hammer throwers.

Young yesterday won the long jump. Distance, 22 feet 4 inches. He also won the high jump with 5 feet 8½ inches. Stevens of Yale won the hammer throw. Distance, 136 feet 9 inches. Schmitt of Cornell was third in the half-mile run.

The other Oxford wins were the weight, half-mile, mile, quarter-mile, and three-mile run, giving her the contests by 8½ to 1½ points.

Cambridge took only the hurdles. The 100-yard dash was a tie.

THIRTY CARLOADS OF BUICK AUTOMOBILES. What was probably the largest single shipment of automobiles ever made was one trainload of Buick motors under shipment to the Pence Automobile company, Minneapolis, Minn. There were thirty carloads in the train, consisting of ninety automobiles, the total valuation of which was $112,500. Big as it was, the shipment constitutes less than one-third of the total number of cars ordered by the above named company, their total allotment for the season being three hundred, made up of two hundred and fifty two-cylinder models and fifty four-cylinder models. The Buick Motor company factories are all working to their full capacity, and extensive building operations are underway at Flint, which will double the capacity at that point.

Buick automobiles are sold in Montpelier at the J. J. Williams & Son garage and repair station.

BROWNSVILLE'S PUZZLE DEEPER

Gen. Crozier Points Out Errors in Lists of Guns

SENT FROM TEXAS TOWN

Probably Due to Mistake—Effect Is to Raise a Doubt Whether Certain Rifles Were Really Under Lock and Key.

Washington, March 23.—Secretary Taft yesterday transmitted to the Senate committee on military affairs a report of Brigadier-General Crozier, chief of ordnance, with reference to the number of the guns assigned to the negro soldiers of Companies B, C, and D, of the 25th infantry, on the night of August 13 last, when Brownsville, Texas, was shot up.

It appears from the letter of General Crozier that on the face of the lists of guns as forwarded by the officers of the companies, there were certain errors, arising probably from mistakes in transcribing from the property books of the companies.

The effect of this is to raise a doubt whether two of the guns, supposed, after expert examination at the Springfield arsenal of shells picked up in the streets of Brownsville, to have been used in the affray, were in the arms chests of Company B under lock and key, and not issued to soldiers, as was indicated by the former report sent to the committee by the ordnance department of the army. In his letter Secretary Taft says:

"It will be observed that this does not affect in the slightest the conclusions of Lieutenant Hawkins, the expert who examined the shells and made further tests at the Springfield arsenal, as to the number of the guns from which the cartridge shells found on the streets of Brownsville were discharged. The lists of the guns numbers as assigned to the men were not sent to Lieutenant Hawkins and were never in his possession. This matter only affects the question of the custody of those guns and the names of the enlisted men of the company to whom they were assigned."

In order to remove the possibility of error, Secretary Taft has ordered the property books of all three companies sent to the war department, and he has notified the Senate committee that the books will arrive in a day or two. He says it will probably be possible from them to correct the errors apparent on the lists. General Crozier's report gives in detail the numerous mistakes made in telegraphing the numbers of guns to the war department, and the manner in which such mistakes could be made.

Another report from the ordnance department was sent to the committee by Secretary Taft. This shows that the ammunition for the new Springfield rifle cannot be used in any other guns except the Mauser and Schmidt, either the caliber or the fact that the Springfield ammunition uses a flanged case, excluding all other arms.

The type of Mauser which is adapted to the Springfield ammunition is said to be used only in Argentina, Peru, Belgium, and Turkey. The Schmidt gun has only three loads instead of the four which the new Springfield rifle has, and the bullets, consequently, would be differently marked.

Secretary Taft notified that committee that should it desire further expert evidence on this subject, General Crozier and his assistants in the bureau of ordnance were at its disposal.

SHAKE WELL IN A BOTTLE

Splendid Prescription to be Mixed at Home

BACKACHE IS WARNING

How to Find Out if Kidneys Are Affected and What to Do—What Causes Rheumatism and Blood Disorders and How to Remedy Them.

A well known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than to any other cause.

When there is sickness examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering, frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach diseases, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms, the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brickdust sediment, or white, fleshy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Karpion, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

SON FLED FIRE, MOTHER BURNS.

Portland, Me., March 23.—Mrs. Annie Joyce, sixty, was burned to death, and her son, Edward Joyce, twenty-nine, only escaped death by jumping from a second-story window, in a fire which gutted their tenement on Beach street.

Awakened from sleep by the flames, young Joyce roused his mother, then, seeing her to follow him, broke out a window and jumped thirty-five feet to the ground. The mother feared the jump and was burned to a crisp trying to force her way out through the door.

MOYER AND HAYWOOD WILL BE PUT ON TRIAL IN MAY. Motion for Change of Venue to Be Passed Upon Monday.

Boise, Idaho, March 23.—At Caldwell Thursday the argument on the motion for a change of venue in the Moyer-Haywood murder case was brought to a close by M. Richardson, Judge Woods subsequently announcing that he would not be able to render his decision until Monday.

Perhaps the strongest point made by the defense was the one upon which the judge wishes more information. This was that a motion for a change of venue could at any time be renewed by the defense; that, if the present motion was overruled and circumstances later made it obvious that a change of venue should be taken, the motion could be renewed and granted.

It was informally agreed that the case should be set for trial some time in May at the discretion of the court.

CRAWFORD DENIES CHARGES. Governor Declares His Entireties Filled in Good Faith; Nothing Fraudulent.

Pierson, S. D., March 23.—Governor C. I. Crawford of South Dakota has issued a statement in regard to the charges made by Secretary of the Interior Garfield alleging fraud on the part of Governor Crawford in proving up on public lands in South Dakota. The statement says in part: "I made a homestead filing upon a quarter section of land five or six years ago in good faith and without fraudulent intent. I afterward abandoned the filing because I concluded that the land was not the equivalent of any time in making the necessary improvements and settlement. It was simply a case of abandonment by me of a lawful entry, which the government may, of course, cancel. No proof of settlement was ever made or offered. The charge of fraud is unfounded and is made ex parte. The placing of it in the Congressional Record is no doubt inspired by political enemies. As to the other filings mentioned I state most emphatically and unequivocally that I never either directly or indirectly made any agreement by which I was to acquire title to government land through others, no matter what Congressman Mann or others may say."

WANTS LOCAL PLAYERS. To Make Up New Hampshire League as Much as Possible.

Concord, March 23.—There was a fair representation of Concord fan-dom represented in Union hall, opera house block, Thursday night for the informal meeting called by the new manager of the local interests in the state league, Augustine F. Long of Nashua. The bunch was not wildly enthusiastic, but everyone present seemed deeply interested and many expressions of approval were heard regarding the plans outlined by Manager Long.

In speaking of signing players, Manager Long laid particular stress upon the desirability of obtaining local talent, if possible, and to make up the team in every way to represent this city. "Nothing will be offered," said the manager, "but the cleanest of sport, and although it cannot be promised this early, I would like to say the fastest. Of course it is not to be expected that we'll have a Class A, or even a New England league class aggregation, but from the present prospects I think that the snappiest players who will accept the terms of a Class D club, will be secured."

The manager stated that the season will open for the Concord team on May 11, with a game in Nashua.

THREE FOR THE LUMPERS

Defeated Nippers in the Candle Pin League

JACK FRASER HIGH MAN

Rolls a Single String of 114 and Total of 282—Winners Were 47 Pins to the Good in the Totals.

The Lumpers defeated the Nippers' team of the candle pin league at Buzzell's alleys last evening, defeating the latter team three straight with a total pin fall of 1258 to 1211.

Jack Fraser of the Lumpers rolled the high single string with 114, and also the high-three string total with 282. The score:

"SQUALL" WON THE RACE.

Burlington Iceboats Did Good Time Over 40-Mile Course.

Burlington, March 23.—The race of the Excelsior Yacht club yesterday in Burlington bay and just outside was an interesting affair. The yachts sailed over a triangular course, three times around, making 40 miles in all, the longest course ever sailed in an ice race on the lake.

The winner was the yacht Squall, Capt. Pasby; second, Hazel F. Capt. Mariani. The Squall's time was 56 minutes 4 seconds, and the Hazel's 47 minutes 3 seconds. The Volunteer, sailed by George Jewett, broke down on the second leg of the course.
